Pride of ownership and lots of extras including easy maintenance tiled flooring throughout, nice vinyl slide open windows, built-in oven, screened in porch, and manicured yard. This home features a living room plus a unique flex room of over 500 square feet that can be closed off for privacy with the included pocket doors. The flex space features a pellet stove with nice brick work that doubles as extra seating, large circular windows, and French Doors leading to the screened in porch. The backyard is nicely finished with mature trees, a grass area, and lots of room to roam. Close to schools, highway access, and recreation areas. Don't miss this one!
